Quilters and Crafters Share Tips and Learn Techniques at the Sew Original

Quilt and Creative Expo at the Kentucky Exposition Center

LOUISVILLE, KY (August 26, 2013) – From traditional log cabin quilts to trendy zentangles, the Sew Original Quilt and Creative Expo offers something for beginners and expert sewers alike. This event will bring sewers, crafters and quilters to the Kentucky Exposition Center Friday, August 30 – Sunday, September 1 and runs 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. each day.

Quilting and sewing experts will lead demonstrations and classes covering a variety of topics including different quilting techniques, technology and sewing handmade clothing. Participants can see a full list of classes and register online at <http://qscexpos.com/louisville.html>. Prices for classes range from $10 - $60.

Quilt displays will feature pieces from Cincinnati Modern Quilt Guild Showcase, ROUTE 66 Quilts Traveling Exhibition and a display of “Old Quilts Made New” a combination of reclaimed antique quilts preserved with new materials. Fifty vendors will display equipment, quilts, fabric, furniture and more.

Tickets for the expo are $10 per day or $20 for all three days. Children 12 and under are free. Parking at the Kentucky Exposition Center is $8 per vehicle. For more information visit, <http://qscexpos.com/louisville.html>.
